

Hampton 101 – A Citizen Crash Course to Get to Know Your City

The Hampton Way – Our City Government & Citizen Engagement

City Manager, Mary Bunting explains the guiding principles, the vision of Hampton City Government and the vital role of citizen engagement. Location: Sandy Bottom Nature Center

Creating the Vision and Making It Happen

Terry O'Neill, Director of the Community Development and Mike Yaskowsky of Economic Development will share Hampton's vision for the future and updates of exciting projects in Hampton.

Location: Hampton Air & Space Center

The Intricacies of Creating a Green Hampton

Public Works Director, Tony Reyes, will lead the discussion about the infrastructure of Hampton and how Trash, Roads and Environmental Management work together to create a sustainable GREEN City.

Location: Hunter B. Andrews School

A Safe City is a Happy City

Take a tour of our new Fire Station and meet the men and women who protect our City and learn how Hampton's Fire and Police Divisions work together to make Hampton one of the safest cities in our region.

Location: NEW Fire Station #11

Hampton Youth, Shaping Hampton and the World

The Superintendent of Schools, Linda Shifflette, hosts this session along with all of the City divisions dedicated to the education and leadership development of Hampton's youth.

Location: Healthy Families

Neighborhoods, Places we proudly call Home

Hampton's neighborhoods are the Heart of Hampton and serve as a majority of our tax revenue. Learn all the ways in which Hampton works with citizens, allocates resources, and coordinates the many facets of healthy neighborhoods.

Location: Little England Cultural Center

Hampton on the Move!

Wrapping up the College is this captivating tour that leads you through Hampton in a way you have never seen covering history, recreation, tourism and a glimpse of Hampton's future. Begin this great tour at the Hampton History Museum.

Registration Open for Fall Course

Register online at www.Hampton.gov/learn

(Thursdays, Sept. 13 - Oct. 18, 6:30- 8:30 pm & Sat., Oct. 20,).

For more information call 311 (727-8311 from cell).